About Cold Water Canyon Golf Course

Named for the stunning, nearby hidden glens carved deep in the cliffs along the Dells of the Wisconsin River, the par 71, 18-hole Cold Water Canyon golf course is Wisconsin's second oldest golf course. The first holes were built in 1903 and the front 9 completed in 1923, designed by J.C. Wilson of the Chicago Golf Commission.

Where: Cold Water Canyon Golf Course is located at Chula Vista Resort in Wisconsin Dells, Wis.

Date Built/Designer:

1903 – Berry Family Hotel builds 3-holes of traditional play

1923 – Front 9 holes designed by J.C. Wilson of the Chicago Golf Commission incorporates original 3 holes

1999 – Back 9 Link-Style Course designed by Dan Fieck

2017 – 30,000 dump-truck loads reshaped the course to play at par 71

Notable Play Improvements since 2017:

- Course reshaped to play at par 71
- Holes lengthened increasing length to 6,000 yards
- Four tee boxes established to accommodate golfers of all abilities
- Towering white pines provide private, secluded fairways
- Fescue grasses reshape fairways and penalty areas
- Resculpted greens provide challenging and immaculate putting surfaces
